General information:

Race site: The grounds being used for this meet are not completely flat.

Bring Water and Shade for your dogs.

Porta-pot and cooling pools on site

There will be practice runs available between programs 1 & 2 and 2 & 3 for dogs owned by anyone willing to help at the event by being a dedicated line or foul judge for the meet. People who have entered the event and have young or non-tested dogs may also run their hounds between programs. There is no fee for the practice runs. However, this is a race meet and our desire is to get done before it gets too hot. Please limit your practices to 1 dog. If you would like more than 1 dog in practices please check with the meet Secretary. In the event of hot weather, we reserve to postpone the practice runs until after the meet and ribbons awarded.

Sunday's ribbon ceremony will commence once the equipment has been picked up.
